1. Report on Swachh Bharat Summer Internship Programme
(Date: 12.06.2018-31.07.2018)

On June 12, 2018, the P. R. Thakur Govt. College (PRTGC) NSS branch organized a Swachh Bharat Camp to clean the adopted school's campus. Ninety NSS student volunteers took part in the camp in an active manner. The NSS Programme Officer (NSS UNIT-I) Dr. Nibedita Bayen, all of the NSS student volunteers, and other faculty members participated in the programme. Officer-in-Charge, Dr. Swapan Sarkar officially opened the event and took the Swachh Bharata Pledge. Volunteers taught certain skills related to personal health and hygiene that they learnt from the adjacent hospital authority, the school children. Student volunteers helped these students to clean their class room and the place where their mid-day meal was cooked. They filled biodegradable carry bags with the debris and placed them in the trash can.

5. Report on Creation & Maintenance of Medicinal Plant Garden
(Date: 14.08.2018)

The NSS unit of P.R. Thakur Govt. Collage conducted an activity for our volunteers to plant medicinal herbs in our own garden. The activity was held on 14th August, 2018. Dr. Swapan Sarkar, OIC of the Collage inaugurated the programme by planting some medicinal herbs on that day. The aim of this programme was to make our volunteers aware of the medicinal values of herbs that are present around our homes. Also, the programme promoted the planting and use of plants from our own garden for basic purposes. The activity was taken up by all our volunteers who actively set up trees and plants in our own spaces.
